

The rules relating to the ticket purchase and taking part in the event.

1. The participant to the event is obliged to refer to the rules and other regulations that can refer to both the mentioned event and people taking part in it.
2. The event participant by entering to the event area agrees to:
 - a. Free of charge usage of personal portrayal made during the event to marketing aims of the organizer with the use of available technique of broadcasting, multiplication, modification and dissemination;
 - b. Abiding in the zone with significant level of noise that can cause in hearing impairment;
 - c. Being located in a crowded place with difficulties that result from such circumstances.
3. The damaged ticket, the ticket without a control coupon or with the unreadable barcode is invalid and must not be returned or be changed for a different ticket.
4. On no account can the duplicate of the tickets be given.
5. In case of ticket distribution via so called vouchers, the mentioned regulations and rules are applied respectively in such circumstances.
6. The event organizer has power to:
 - a. refuse the buyer the admittance to the event – in cases designated in the law of 20 March 2009 of safety and security of mass events;
 - b. forbid the participant to record the course of the event in any way, also forbid to bring in devices that enable recording by any process (photocameras, camcoders etc.)
 - c. ban on bringing in particular articles to the area of the event– bottles with beverages, treebeards, trumpets etc.;
 - d. change the designated place or seating, that can be taken authorized by the ticket;
 - e. make changes in the programme, agenda, time, date of the event or to cancel the event entirely;
7. The purchased and unused tickets can be returned only before the beginning of the event and only obeying the rules defined by the organizer.
8. Whatever the case may be the participant is obliged to obey the rules and regulations designated in the law of 20 March 2009 of safety and security of mass events; .
9. The purchaser throughout buying this ticket fully accepts abovementioned rules of purchasing the ticket and participation in the event without reservation.
10. The ticket seller bears no responsibility for actions taken by the organizer in the respect concerning the event.

13.11.2014.